ABOUT ME

I am a passionate and detailed full-stack web developer with a background in marketing, graphic design skills, content writing skills, and involvement in the autism community. I enjoy connecting people through beautiful and accessible websites.

FEATURED PROJECT

AUDREY'S LIST • audreyslist.org

This is my capstone project completed through Champlain College. It involves front-end design and UI for a website that lists autism resources, and it is also a responsive and mobile-friendly WordPress site with a custom theme. My next steps are to add additional content and add a sort function on the resource page.
